

MS BOOKS AND GAMES - We Can Do What We Like

The following resource activity sheet is for use with the book – We Can Do What We Like

(Prior to commencing the activities below the book “We Can Do What We Like” should be read to the class.)

1) Why did the Mother and Father go on strike?

2) What things are the mother and father no longer going to do for their children?

3) What was the first rule the children made up?

4) What are some of the other rules the children decided to make up?

5) What did the children have for Breakfast, for lunch and dinner?

6) What did the boy do to his sister's doll?

7) What did the girl do to her brother's red car?

8) How many changes of clothes did the children go through in one day?

9) How often did the children think it was ok to bath?

10) What did the children put on the walls and the windows?

11) What were some of the problems that happened when the children were doing only what they wanted?

12) What were some of the jobs the children finally decided would be a good idea to do?

13) What was the final rule in the book and who thinks this rule is a good idea?

14) What are some of the other jobs your parents do that would and what problems might arise if they were not done?